

National Taipei University of the Arts
Regulations for Incentivizing Faculty Participation in Project-Based or Program-Based Courses

Approved at the 1st Administrative Meeting, First Semester, Academic Year 2016, on October 11, 2016

Approved at the 1st University Endowment Fund Management Committee Meeting, First Semester, Academic Year 2016, on December 22, 2016

Article 1

To encourage full-time faculty members (including research personnel) of the University to participate in project-based or program-based teaching, the Regulations for Incentivizing Faculty Participation in Project-Based or Program-Based Courses of National Taipei University of the Arts (hereinafter referred to as “these Regulations”) are hereby established.

Article 2

These Regulations apply to courses funded by government agencies, limited to those officially registered through the Office of Research and Development. Eligible courses are those scheduled during weekday evenings, weekends, or outside regular academic semesters.

Article 3: Incentive Mechanism

1. Full-time faculty members whose courses are approved under these Regulations shall receive an incentive of NT$6,000 per credit.
2. Courses carrying fewer than one credit shall be compensated proportionally. For courses co-taught by two or more instructors, the reward shall be distributed according to each instructor’s actual teaching hours.
3. Faculty members who have not fulfilled their required basic teaching hours are not eligible for this incentive.
4. Faculty members who have received other relevant funding or subsidies shall comply with the respective regulations and may not receive duplicate rewards under these Regulations.

Article 4

The course-offering unit shall complete the application form (see attachment) and submit it for review and approval by the Curriculum Committees at the department/institute and school levels. The approved application shall then be submitted to the University Curriculum Committee for record.

Article 5

The expenses required for the implementation of these Regulations shall be covered by the University's self-generated income or by relevant project subsidies.

Article 6

These Regulations shall take effect following approval by the Administrative Meeting and the University Endowment Fund Management Committee and ratification by the President. The same procedure shall apply to any amendments.
